6. Termination

The Court finds that the results of genetic testing exclude Petitioner as the genetic father of the child.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the parent-child relationship between Petitioner and the child named in this suit is terminated.

7. Child Support

IT IS ORDERED that Petitioner's obligation for future support of the child and Petitioner's obligation to pay interest on child support already owed end as of the date this Order was rendered by the Court.

This Order does not affect Petitioner's obligations for support of the child incurred before the date this Order was rendered by the Court. Those obligations are enforceable until paid, by any means available for enforcement of child support, except contempt.

8. Visitation with the Child after Termination

Check one.

☐ Petitioner did not ask for visitation with the child after termination.

☐ Petitioner's request for visitation after termination is DENIED.

☐ The Court FINDS that denial of visitation would significantly impair the child's physical health or emotional well-being.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Petitioner's request for visitation after termination of the parent-child relationship is GRANTED.

Petitioner shall have the right to possession and access to the child as Ordered in Exhibit: Possession and Access Order, which is attached to and fully incorporated into this Order.

During any court ordered period of possession of or access to the child, Petitioner has the following rights and duties:

(A) the duty of care, control, protection, and reasonable discipline of the child;

(B) the duty to support the child, including providing the child with clothing, food, shelter, and medical and dental care not involving an invasive procedure;

(C) the right to consent for the child to receive medical and dental care not involving an invasive procedure; and

(D) the right to direct the moral and religious training of the child.
