

Exhibit A(2)

Standing: Leave to Intervene and Seek Managing Conservatorship Under Texas Family Code 102.004(b)

See Texas Family Code 102.004(b)

The law allows me to ask the Court for leave to intervene in this suit and seek managing conservatorship of the child/ren because:

(Check one.)

I am a grandparent of the children; or

I am a grandparent of the child/ren who has had substantial past contacts with the children; See Substantial Past Contacts Affidavit, attached at Exhibit C(2); or

I am another person who has had substantial past contacts with the children; See Substantial Past Contacts Affidavit, attached at Exhibit C(2);

and there is satisfactory proof to the Court that appointment of a parent as a sole managing conservator or both parents as joint managing conservators would significantly impair the child/ren's physical health or emotional development. See Significant Impairment Affidavit, attached at Exhibit C(1).

I ask the Court to grant me leave to intervene in this suit, and to sign the Order Granting Leave to Intervene, below.

Order Granting Leave to Intervene

IT IS ORDERED that:

The Court finds that the Intervenor, _____, should be granted leave to intervene and continue as a party to this suit for all purposes; or should NOT be granted leave to intervene.

SIGNED on _____, 20____.
