

Exhibit: Family Information

Required by Texas Family Code 105.006 and 105.007

Important: If giving this information to the other parent (or other person involved in this case) is likely to cause you or your children to be harassed, abused, seriously harmed, or injured, you may ask the court to order, after notice and hearing, that the information not be given to the other parent (or other person involved in this case).

If any family information requested on this form changes while a custody or support order is in effect, you must notify:

- each person named as a party in this case,
- the Court, and
- the State Child Support Registry

Notification must be at least 60 days before the change. If you did not know about the change 60 days before it happened, notification must be on or before the 5th day after you know of the change. You must send written notice of any change to each person named as a party in this case by registered or certified mail, return receipt. Notify the Court by delivering a copy of the notice either in person to the clerk of this Court or by registered or certified mail addressed to the District Clerk's Office of this County. Notify the State Child Support Registry by mailing a copy of the notice to State Case Registry, Contract Services Section, MC046S, P.O. Box 12017, Austin, Texas 78711-2017.

5. Warnings

Each person who is a party to this order is ordered to notify every other party, the court, and the state child support registry of any change in the party's current residence address, mailing address, home telephone number, name of employer, address of employment, driver's license number, and work telephone number.

The party is ordered to give notice of an intended change in any of the required information to the other party, the court, and the state case registry on or before the 60th day before the intended change. If the party does not know or could not have known of the change in sufficient time to give notice of the change to provide 60 days' notice, the party is ordered to give notice of the change on or before the 5th day after the date that the party knows of the change.

The duty to furnish this information to every other party, the court, and the state case registry continues as long as any person, by virtue of this order, is under an obligation to pay child support or entitled to possession of or access to a child.

Failure by a party to obey the order of this court to provide every other party, the court, and the state case registry with the change in the required information may result in further litigation to enforce the order, including contempt of court. A finding of contempt may be punishable by confinement in jail for up to six months, a fine of up to $500 for each violation, and a money judgment for payment of attorney's fees and court costs.

Notice shall be given to every other party by delivering a copy of the notice to each party by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested.

Notice shall be given to the court and the state case registry by delivering a copy of the notice either in person to the clerk of the court or by registered or certified mail addressed to the clerk.
