- (11) Please circle “is” if you are attaching a copy of the court’s order or judgment that sentenced you. Attaching a copy of the Court’s order or judgment may expedite the process of obtaining an order of nondisclosure, but it is not required. Please circle “is not” if you are not attaching a copy of the court’s order or judgment. NOTE: You are eligible to file a Petition for Nondisclosure under Section 411.0735 on or after the date that you completed your sentence, if you were convicted of a misdemeanor punishable by fine only, or on or after the second anniversary of the date that you completed your sentence, if you were convicted of a misdemeanor other than a misdemeanor punishable by fine only.

Attaching a copy of the evidence may speed up obtaining an order of nondisclosure, but it is not required. Please circle “is not” if you are not attaching a copy of evidence showing that you completed your sentence. Such evidence may include a copy of your release or discharge paper. The jail that released you may have given you several documents when you were released. Check those documents to see if any reflects your release date. If any does, you may submit a copy of that document. If you were placed on probation or deferred adjudication, you may submit a copy of the document discharging you from probation or deferred adjudication. If you were ordered to pay a fine, costs, or restitution, you may attach proof of final payment. Do not worry if you do not have a document to attach. However, please remember that you cannot file a petition for nondisclosure until: (1) you have completed your sentence; and (2) at least two years have passed since you completed your sentence, unless you were convicted of an offense punishable by fine only.

- (13) There is a filing fee associated with filing a petition for an order of nondisclosure under Section 411.0735. The filing fee is the amount of the court's regular civil filing fee plus an additional $28. Typically, the total filing fee is about $280. However, the amount varies from county to county. Please contact the clerk for the court in which you are filing the petition to obtain the correct amount of the total filing fee. NOTE: You should not have to pay the clerk to serve the petition on the attorney for the state (hereinafter "prosecutor"), Department of Public Safety (hereinafter "DPS"), or any other agency or entity, including any law enforcement entity. The statute requires the court, clerk, and DPS to notify the other parties of interest. See Sections 411.0745(e), 411.075(a) and 411.075(b), Government Code, respectively.

As a general rule, you must pay the filing fee in order to file this petition. However, you may be eligible to file a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs in lieu of paying the filing fee. The statement is described in Rule 145 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 145. You may view Rule 145 online at <http://www.txcourts.gov/media/1435952/trcp-all-updated-with-amendments-effective-912016.pdf>. You can click here for the form: <http://www.txcourts.gov/media/1435953/statement-final-version.pdf>.

Please place a check mark or an "x" on the line before the statement that applies to you. Place a check mark or "x" in front of the first statement, if you are paying the filing fee. If you are submitting a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs instead, place a check mark or an "x" in front of the second statement.

- (14) Please sign above the line. If you are filing this petition electronically, you may enter "/s/" followed by your typewritten name.
- (15) Please PRINT your name.
- (16) Please enter your mailing address.
- (17) Please enter your city, state and zip code.

(18) Please enter your telephone number.

Process after You Complete the PETITION

If you are eligible for an order of nondisclosure under Section 411.0735, the process for obtaining an order under that section is as follows:

First, be sure to wait the requisite time before filing the petition, and check in advance with the clerk's office to obtain the total amount of the fee (including the $28 fee) required to file a petition for an order of nondisclosure, unless you are submitting a Statement of Inability to Afford Payment of Court Costs in lieu of paying the fee. Next, be sure to complete the correct petition according to the instructions above, and after you have done so, print both the petition and the Order of Nondisclosure. In most courts, you will have to submit a proposed order with the petition when you file it. The judge will complete the order, if the judge grants your request.

You must file the petition in the court that sentenced you.

After you file the petition, the clerk will send it to the court and the court will notify the prosecutor. Again, you should not have to pay the clerk to serve notice on the prosecutor or any other party.

A hearing on the petition is not required if the prosecutor does not request a hearing.

If a hearing is scheduled, the court or clerk will notify you. If there is a hearing, the court may ask questions to establish whether you satisfy the requirements of Sections 411.074 and 411.0735, Government Code. After the hearing, if the court determines that you satisfy the requirements of the statutes and that issuance of the order of nondisclosure is in the best interest of justice, the court should grant your request for the order.

If the court does not hold a hearing, the judge will review your petition to determine whether you satisfy the requirements of the statutes and whether issuance of the order of nondisclosure is in the best interest of justice. If the court finds that you have satisfied the requirements of the statutes and that the issuance of the order is in the best interest of justice, the court should grant your request for the order.

The court and/or prosecutor will have access to your criminal history record information and will use it to determine if you are eligible to file the petition.

If the court grants the order of nondisclosure, no later than 15 business days after the order issues, the clerk will send a copy of the order to DPS. Then, no later than 10 business days after DPS receives the order, DPS will seal the criminal history record information that is the subject of the order and forward a copy of the order to the state and federal agencies listed in 411.075(b), Government Code. See Section 411.075(b) for a complete list of agencies and entities that DPS must notify.
